

Breastfeeding

The Premature Infant

Primary Goal of the Seminar

Improving the lives of premature infant through evidence based breastfeeding practices in the hospital and after discharge.

Raising awareness about the critical value and awareness of human milk for premature infants.

Dusit Thani Hotel
Saturday, January 12th
2019
08:30 am - 05:00 pm
Dubai

Target Audience
Physicians, Nurses, Midwives,
Lactation Consultants, Dieticians,
Breastfeeding and Peer Counsellors,
Douglas and breastfeeding and public health advocates

CME & CERPS Applied

Learning Objectives

- ✓ Identify measures that promote human milk in NICU.
- ✓ Discuss practical strategies to help mothers of late preterm infants.
- ✓ Identifying strategies to increase breast milk supply in the pump dependent mother.
- ✓ Identify barriers and support practices for milk expression and maintenance.
- ✓ Identify specific nursing practices that can significantly impact the handling of human milk in NICU.
- ✓ Discuss how effective lactation counseling and support can minimize maternal anxiety in NICU mothers.
- ✓ Discuss the Baby Friendly Hospital Initiatives for neonatal wards.

Registration

Registration and Payment through Hospital Coordinators Or online directly through lactation@eventgo.ae

- Physicians 450 AED.
- Nurses and allied Health care professions 350 AED.
- Students, Breastfeeding peer counsellors and voluntary breastfeeding supporters 250 AED.

