

10th Lactation Management Training Program (LMTP)

Register Now!
Limited seats available

Accredited
since 2010

Target group

IBCLC come from different backgrounds and can be Neonatologists, Pediatricians, Obstetric and Gynecologists, family physicians, General practitioners, Nurses, Midwives, Dieticians, Speech and language pathologists and Breast-feeding and public health advocates.

Application

Send your filled application form by email to info@dletp.com
Registration confirmed only upon the course fees payment
Registration fee: 3500 AED
Venue: Alolama Medical Center.

IBCLC

Be one of the few, the dedicated and the best!
Show your expertise by earning the international certification as an IBCLC Step UP and become an IBCLC.

The LMT program

- ◆ The LMT program is a well-established and a highly esteemed program to train and educate health care professionals with the necessary skills, knowledge and attitudes needed to assist breastfeeding mothers, infants and children.
- ◆ The program provides high quality comprehensive lactation education for health care professionals working in maternal and child health care sector.
- ◆ This program offers the 90 lactation specific education hours required to apply for the IBCLC (The international Board Certified Lactation Consultant) Examinations.
- ◆ The 10th LMT program starts from 9th March to 27th April 2019 and consists of direct contact hours along with on line study modules through our website www.dletp.com
- ◆ The program is conveniently held on Saturdays.

Program Director

Dr. Fatma Sultan Alolama MBBS, DCH, MRCGP, Recertified IBCLC, Assessor and
Educator of Baby Friendly Hospital
Initiative (BFHI)
Head of Child Health Care Unit

Program Coordinator

Zahra Omar Warsame
Recertified IBCLC
Mentor and Clinical Instructor
DHA Certified Trainer

email: info@dletp.com

web: www.dletp.com